

LATTE

(Lawyers Accountable To The Earth)
thanks you for helping to make our first
Boston tree planting a success!

On April 28, 2012 we partnered with BNAN (Boston Natural Areas Network) to plant 16 trees in Roxbury, MA at the former Emerson School, soon to be the Dudley Street Neighborhood Charter School (opening fall 2012).

The property had a lot of blacktop, but hardly any green.
After just a few hours of planting trees, that changed!

Tree planting is not just for grown-ups!

Law firms representing!

Educators leading by example

We are making progress...look at all these new trees!

Jeff Glassman, RainforestMaker Founder, presents $3,200 check to BNAN to fund 9 trees

Erica Mattison, Suffolk University Law School Student and RainforestMaker Director of Partnerships, with Jeff Glassman, RainforestMaker Founder and Suffolk University Law School Alumnus

Thank you to our financial contributors to date, who are providing for the planting and maintenance of trees in Boston:

- D'Ambruoso & Freed, LLP
- Epstein & August, LLP
- Fireman & Associates
- Jan R. Schlichtmann, Attorney at Law, P.C.
- Law Offices of Jeffrey S. Glassman, LLC
- McGregor & Associates, P.C.
- Rita Glassman
- Suffolk University Law School Professor Janice Griffith
- Suffolk University Law School Professor Joseph Glannon
- Suffolk University Law School Professor Kathleen Engel

Are you inspired yet????

Here are two ways to take action to make it possible for LATTE to do more tree plantings in Boston:

Donate here

(We welcome contributions of all amounts, from lawyers and non-lawyers alike!)

Get involved

Email erica@rainforestmaker.org to sign up to participate in a planting or suggest potential sites.